Chapter 1 by Bee

Where was it?

Alyse sighed. She was searching for the precious gem that the others in the village always talked about.

The one with powers.

Oh boy

Then, spotting something moving in her peripheral vision, Alyse whipped around and pointed her laser gun at it.

A shadow froze, then darted towards the entrance to temple.

So Alyse pointed the red dot at the center of it and pulled the trigger.

Chapter 2 by Bee

The sonic boom echoed through the empty room. The back of the chair knocked her back a foot.

Shadows wavered, then disappeared.

Dead on

Fumbling over, Alyse kept the gun cocked and aimed. "Get up!" she commanded.

The form didn't move.

"UP!" she bellowed.

The form groaned and pushed itself up. It took on the shape of a boy older than Alyse with dark curly hair and bright eyes.

"What the hell was that for?" he snapped.

The girl glared. "What are you doing here? What's your name?"

"Too many questions," the boy responded, "but I'll answer them. Charlie Beckno and I'm looking for the same thing you are."

"And what is that?"

"The gem."
